Donald Downs came around to see me at the hotel this morning. His book is being published in England the beginning of April.

Afterwards I went to the Embassy and at 12 o'clock was introduced by the Ambassador to the American newspaper correspondents. They asked me many questions regarding the various Community of Six projects. Lunched with Henry Ringling North and we talked of many things, including circuses.

This afternoon Tommy and I went to the museum at the Villa Borghese. I also bought some silk for shirts. We left at 6:00 pm via TWA tourist plane, stopped at Geneva and arrived in Paris at 10:15.
